PIONEER ELBA WOMAN DIES
Mrs. Susan Ella Tatum, aged 83, died early Saturday morning following an illness of several days, in Dothan.

Mrs. Tatum resided in Elba for many years prior to moving to Dothan more than 30 years ago. She lived in the present Anne Brunson home but was called the old Hamp Tatum home. Her children were born and reared there. She was well-known in this community and had many friends among the older Elba citizens.

Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. L. A. Norman, Lake Champlain; two sons, Earl Tatum, Dothan, and Duke P. Tatum, Elba; one sister, Mrs. Minnie Williams Gantt and 22 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a Dothan funeral home with Dr. Willard Walton officiating. Burial was in Dothan city cemetery.

CLASS A TOURNEY
The Second District Class A basketball tournament got underway Monday afternoon on the Dothan courts with the first seeded teams, Baker Hill, Highland Home, Pleasant Home, Elbow, Brockton, Midland City and Goshen winning first round contests.

The tourney will be in progress throughout the week with finals slated for Saturday night. The Class AA Second District tournament, also to be staged at the Dothan gymnasium, will crank off Monday, Feb. 27 and close Saturday night.

The Class AA first four seeded teams are Bufaula 1, Elba 2, Dothan 3 and Kinston 4. This time Elba and Dothan in the lower bracket and Bufaula and Kinston in the upper. Stranger things could happen than to see Elba and Bufaula battling it out Saturday night, March 3, for the championship. However, it has been suggested that to bring about the Elba Tigers will have to show better form than they have exhibited in their last several games.

MRS. RHODES IMPROVES
D. C. Rhodes stated that he visited his wife Monday night in the Dothan hospital where she has been for ten weeks undergoing treatment for severe burns sustained when her clothing caught fire from a heater at her home in West Elba. He said she seemed somewhat improved and hopes she is entertained for her ultimate recovery but her condition is still serious.

JOHN FOLEY CRITICAL
John Foley of Curtis community is in a critical condition after being hospitalized for an undetermined ailment. His brother, Levy Foley, visited him on Tuesday morning and said he showed little hope for any improvement.

J. M. COOK ILL
"Uncle Math" Cook was taken to Opp Hospital Sunday afternoon. Hospital physicians said his condition was serious but allowed him to return home. His many friends hope he will soon recover.

UNUSUAL DATES
Both Democratic primaries will be held in May this year—May 1 and May 29. This is the first time in many decades that the first Tuesday and Tuesday four weeks later, have occurred in May. And it will be a long time before it will occur again according to the almanac.

SAME HOME, MORE PAY
Mr. & Mrs. D. B. Perdue have received word from their son, Billy Perdue, that he has received a promotion in his firm, the International Paper Co.

Billy has been with the firm, which has headquarters at Madison, Ga., for several years, being a forestry supervisor over a number of counties. He recently built a modern home in Madison and when he received his promotion as supervisor over the school dental clinic when he met in the Masonic Hall Friday at noon. Dr. J. M. Kimmy made the motion that the Centennial money be used for this purpose and Bill Stokes seconded it. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

Henry Dorsey, chairman of the committee to build the school dental clinic, said he had contacted the Jaycees, Dorsey Trailers and American Legion in regard to contributions to start the project. All, and the Lions club, have indicated they would help, he said. Public Health officials said it would be a fine project.

P-T. A. Mothers Will Aid in Dental Clinic

P-T. A. mothers will act as assistants in the school dental clinic which begins operation in Elba, it was decided at their Feb. 7 meeting.

In speaking to the group on the project, Dr. Ralph Powell, dentist, said the florine treatment will be given first to the children in the first three grades as rapidly as possible, the treatment will be given to the fourth and eventually to the high school students and pupils in the surrounding county schools.

The chair and some of the equipment for the clinic has arrived and will be set up in the school soon. Mrs. Catherine Windham, P-T. A. publicity chairman, said.

Hog Raising School To Be Held Tuesday

How Coffee County farmers can show a profit on their hog operations even with the present price outlook, will be described next week by G. B. Phillips (above), API Extension specialist in animal husbandry. He will use colored slides showing up-to-the-minute techniques in efficient hog production to illustrate his remarks on the future of the hog business here.

He and local Extension agents will conduct the county-wide hog school at Elba, Tuesday, Feb. 28, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning in the courthouse.

A meeting in Enterprise will be held at City Hall that afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

4-H Elimination Contests Scheduled

The County Elimination contests will be held in the courthouse in Elba Feb. 25 at 9 A. M. There are three contests, cornmeal muffs, yeast breads and dress review. More than one contestant should bring to Elba.

Those in the cornmeal muffs contest are not required to say any words but those in the yeast bread contest will talk during the demonstration.

The making and measuring techniques count points toward winning. 4-H records should be brought because they count 40 percent of the final score.

Atomic Cigar Causes Blast

Pulton F. Clark, proprietor of Elba Old Service Station, thought he had an atomic cigar last Thursday evening about 6 o'clock.

Mr. Clark said he went into his office to light his cigar and a terrific explosion resulted. The interior of the office burst into flames, two windows were blown out and smoke mushroomed out of the building. He suspected Communist agents of planting an atom bomb in his cigar but wisely had a gas valve turned off and extinguished the flames before starting on the bomb.

When a Geiger counter showed a radioactive fallout from the blast, Mr. Clark beat him to the call in the FBI but did a little investigating himself. It seems a large tank truck was transferring gasoline to a tank in the room on the west side of the office. The door was open so that the strong westerly wind which was blowing blew gasoline fumes into the office which was almost air tight.

Dental Clinic Gets Money

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted to take the $411.23 of Centennial fund money that was put in the Chamber of Commerce treasury when the group was organized two years ago and help finance a school dental clinic when they met in the Masonic Hall Friday at noon. Dr. J. M. Kimmy made the motion that the Centennial money be used for this purpose and Bill Stokes seconded it. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

Henry Dorsey, chairman of the committee to build the school dental clinic, said he had contacted the Jaycees, Dorsey Trailers and American Legion in regard to contributions to start the project. Annual County Report Shows Welfare Benefits Total Half Million

Over a half million dollars in benefits were distributed in Coffee County by the local Dept. of Pensions and Securities, the annual report for the fiscal year Oct. 1, 1954-Sept. 30, 1955, shows.

Total expenditures of $507,692.22 included $302,444.17 of state and federal funds; $74,050 of local funds and $4,500 for Confederate Pensions. Of this total, 93.28 percent went directly to needy people in the form of assistance payments.

Old Age Payments amounted to $322,858; Aid to Blind, $8,778; Aid to Permanently and Totally Disabled, $53,800; Aid to Children, $84,855; Aid to Children in Foster Care, $1,445; Temporary Aid, $595; total public assistance, $478,561.

Other expenditures were Confederate Pensioners, $4,500; Administration, $28,848.17; Local Funds Only, $47,050.

About three-fourths of the expenditures came from Federal funds.

Bethany Community Farmer Claims Photo-Oats Fill Gap in Livestock Feeding

Oats fill a big gap in the year-round livestock feeding program on the Marvin Carroll farm, said the community leader when he picked up the first crop of his place Friday, Feb. 10.

Mr. Carroll uses a White OTC bear for his six brood sows. The bear is pictured by the sow's side.

On his cattle farming, the Bethany land owner prefers Herefords. He has a purebred Hereford bull and 15 mixed blood cows and calves.

Getting back to his method of using oats, Mr. Carroll said the system could be advanced more by planting peas on the land after livestock was taken off and put on corn. He said he hasn't done this because available corn and other feeds are ample at reasonable prices.

There are two places owned by Mr. Carroll. His 10-acre farm on which his house was pictured last week, is the original Mace Sawyer place. He has been there for 10 years. Another 70 acres were bought last year and were known as the Dorsey Farm.

Since buying the 110-acre tract 10 years ago, Mr. Carroll has built a new house, improved the pastures, built up the land and done considerable fencing.

Mrs. Carroll is the former Bonnie Nicholson and they were married in 1927. Children are Ella Jean Vaughan, Elba; Peggy Ruth, senior at New Brockton High School; Betty Joann, senior in New Brockton; Edwin, a resident of New Brockton; and twin boys, Charles Perry and Floyd Herrell. Charles is in the Air Force and stationed at Maxwell Field.

Mr. Carroll is chairman of the Board of Deacons. Other activities in which Mr. Carroll has a hand are the Farm Bureau, member of the Board of Directors, and the Livestock Co-op member of the Board of Directors.

Mrs. Edgar Vaughan and Ed Donaldson were the only persons identifying the home of Mr. Carroll. Ed Donaldson had his name drawn out of the hat for the free subscription.

Pre-Planting Measurement
Coffee County cotton and peanut growers are being measured for official measurement of their cotton and peanut acreage. The measurement is being provided on a cost basis, a farmer must file a written request with the County ASC office prior to March 12, says Lester Quisenberry, chairman. The rate to be charged for the service in Coffee County has been established at $5 for each farm, plus 30 cents per acre or fraction thereof in excess of 50 acres, and payment based on this rate must be made at the time the request for premeasurement is filed.

The premeasurement is optional and is offered as a service to growers who prefer to have an official measurement to be used in a planting application. All cotton and peanut acreage in the county will be measured as soon as possible.

4-H Dinner Held at Luncheon Thursday
Seventy-three 4-H presidents, council officers, 4-H leaders, school principals and other friends of 4-H club work attended the annual 4-H leader recognition dinner in the Elba school lunchroom last Thursday night. Polio Vaccine Supply Short

"An acute vaccine shortage is hampering the inoculation program in Alabama as well as in the rest of the nation," Dr. L. Myers of the State Health Department said today.

Anticipated supplies have not been forthcoming from the manufacturers and approved by the U. S. Public Health Service. In January, for example, six million doses of the vaccine were expected to be released to the nation. However, only two million, created under strict procedures and subjected to rigid safety tests, actually became available, Dr. Myers explained.

"So the present slowdown is due to unavoidable delay in release of the vaccine, plus great response on the part of eligible groups," he said.

Some areas of the state have already exhausted their entire vaccine supply, while a few counties will have limited supplies of the anti-poliovirus vaccine available for another week or so, he pointed out. As the Department administrative officer, Dr. Myers is in charge of vaccine distribution under the present federally financed program.

The response of people in the state to the immunization program has been constantly increasing, Dr. Myers said. He added that other states in the region, as well as beginning to feel the effects of short supplies.

To illustrate, Dr. Myers revealed that the Department "borrowed" 20,000 vaccine doses from a neighboring state. Arrangements have now been made to repay this loan because of the demand for the vaccine in that state, he said.

"Alabama still expects to receive more than three-quarters of a million additional doses under the present program," Dr. Myers pointed out. "However, it is estimated that it will be two or three weeks before additional supplies can be expected."

Thus far, over a quarter million children have been inoculated under the federally financed program in Alabama. The eligible group includes children

State Democratic Committee After "Rebels"

Thursday the daily papers carried an item saying that the Elmore County Democratic Executive Committee which defied the state committee's tough new party loyalty oath had been threatened with a court suit unless it backs down.

County Chairman Mac W. Freeman Sr. disclosed Feb. 15 that state Chairman Roy Mayhall of Jasper told him he would seek an injunction against any candidate permitted to run in the spring primaries without signing the state committee's oath.

The state organization meeting in Montgomery Jan. 23 closed the May 1 and May 29 primaries to any Democrats who voted for President Eisenhower in 1952 or otherwise opposed the election of the Democratic nominee, Adlai Stevenson.

School Dental Clinic Closer to Reality

Friday when the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted to use for a school dental clinic the $411 of Centennial money which had been transferred to the organization when it started, they almost assured the children of Elba and West Coffee County that this important public health service would be available to them next year.

Henry Dorsey, chairman of the committee promoting the dental clinic in Elba, said he had contacted the Jaycees, American Legion, Lions Club and Dorsey Trailers for donations. If these groups and anyone else who might contribute, can raise an additional $100, he said he believed the public health office would have enough to start the program. While $1200 would enable them to start out on a stronger footing and let them purchase better equipment, it is believed a start can be made with $800.

Dr. J. M. Kimmy reported that a room was available for the clinic to be set up in the Elba school. He requested that Horton Fick, member of the city school board, ask the board to provide the necessary plumbing. Local dentists will staff the clinic and funds to provide for most operating expenses are available from the federal government.

Personally, we feel that more children will benefit from this program at a lower per capita cost to townships than any project we have seen started since we came to Elba. Once the dental clinic is established, it will perpetuate itself except for minor expenses for supplies. Federal money takes care of the major costs. There will not be a drive year after year for dollars to keep it going.

While it will probably be next school year before the clinic gets into full scale operations, plans call for children from the rural schools to receive benefit of the service. This includes an examination for as many children as possible and as much free dental work as can be crowded in for children in families without money to pay for dental care.

In speaking of the clinic, a local business man stated he wished it had been started a year ago. Through an oversight one of his children, not even in the teens, neglected going to a dentist for a checkup for 18 months. As a result, the youngster lost two permanent teeth. An examination at a school dental clinic would have warned the parent trouble was ahead and prevented the youngster from losing the teeth.

We hope the Jaycees, Legion, Lions Club and Fund at Dorsey Trailers can raise at least $400 between them. If they can, a dental clinic can possibly be started with a minimum of equipment. It will be very much worthwhile for the estimated 90 percent of children in the county who need dental care—but it need caused by lack of money, oversight or neglect.

South By—Passed on Reclamation Projects

A report showing that nearly 21 million acres of fine farm lands are now lying idle in 19 Eastern, Southern and Midwest states will soon be placed before Congress.

Rep. Craig Hosmer of California said that he would present to the House of Representatives evidence to show that while the Federal Bureau of Reclamation is asking Congress to approve enormous costly new irrigation projects, at least 20,000,000 acres of the best American crop land are unused for any purpose.

"Right now," Hosmer stated, "we have before us in Congress the gigantic Upper Colorado River Project. Unquestionably the most expensive and unsound scheme yet devised, it would bring into production more than half a million acres in high, barren, remote areas of Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and New Mexico."

"With millions of acres of the best farm land awaiting the plow in areas where the rainfall is heavy and the growing season long, the Reclamation Bureau would force this great new burden of the Upper Colorado River Project on the American taxpayers."

The Republican Congressman said that at his request a survey had been conducted to determine the amount of good crop land now idle and available for farming, if needed. The data was supplied by field offices of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

"We considered only land in Classes I, II and III," Hosmer stated. "This is the best agricultural land, and the total does not include woodlands, pastures or government lands."

Preliminary 1954 Wholesale County Trade Report

The Census Bureau tabulated a wholesale trade report in all the counties of the United States and Cities of 5,000 or more inhabitants in 1954. The statistics show establishments, payroll and personnel.

Results of the census show that Coffee County has a total of 21 wholesale establishments with a payroll of $219,000 per year. Of these firms, 11 are located in Enterprise and 10 in the rest of the county. The 11 in Enterprise have a yearly payroll of $116,000 while the other 10 have a payroll of $103,000.

Paid employees for the work week ended nearest Nov. 15, 1954 numbered 96, 43 in Enterprise and 53 in the remainder of the county. The 96 workers drew $9,794 in wages. This was broken down so that the 43 in Enterprise received $1,071 and the 53 in the rest of the county, $2,993. Average weekly paycheck amounted to $39.50 in the entire county.

Merchant wholesalers numbering 13, accounted for $2,383,000 worth of business in 1954 in Coffee County. Six in Enterprise sold $1,273,000 worth of goods and seven in the rest of the county did $1,114 worth of business.

Eight other operating types of wholesalers accounted for $3,931,000 in trade. This was broken down so that five in Enterprise did $2,582,000 and 3 in the remainder of the county did $1,339,000.

Wholesale trade as defined by the Census Bureau includes businesses primarily engaged in selling merchandise directly to retailers; to industrial, commercial, institutional or professional users; or to other wholesalers; or acting as agents in buying merchandise for, or selling merchandise to, such persons or companies.

Community Plans

Due Soon in Auburn

Time is getting short for groups that plan to enter Alabama's 1956 Community Improvement Program. Plans on which they will be judged are due in Auburn March 15.

Some well executed plans made last year brought several farm communities recognition and cash awards, said George Sargent of the API Extension Service in reminding community leaders of the deadline date. It is again time for rural groups to get in on the annual competition. Sargent, who is Extension

Specialist, said judging in the program will be done in November, after community clubs have had a chance to carry out their announced plans for improvement.

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Number of Cattle and Calves on Alabama Farms Estimated at 1,798,000 Head on Jan. 1

The number of CATTLE and CALVES on Alabama farms is estimated at 1,798,000 head and calves on Jan. 1, 1956. This represents a 2 percent decrease in numbers from last year but an 8 percent increase in value due to higher average prices. The cows and heifers two years old and older, which were shipped to Alabama from Western States in previous years, the feeder lamb numbers were nominal and were not estimated.

CHICKEN numbers decreased almost 4 percent from a year earlier. However, this inventory figure does not include commercial broilers, an industry which has been increasing rapidly in the past few years.

Livestock and poultry on farms and ranches showed a net increase of 2 percent during 1955. The total for Jan. 1, 1956 was 7 percent below the peak of Jan. 1, 1954. The aggregate increase in livestock is less than a year earlier.

Prices were favorable in relation to feed costs early in 1955 for hogs, beef cattle and commercial broilers. Prices for feed declined steadily during the year. Prices for broilers and hogs dropped substantially during the last half of the year, becoming less favorable in relation to feed prices as increased supplies were marketed. Prices for eggs and turkeys averaged higher than year earlier, and milk prices showed little change. Price-feed ratios for all three products were more favorable than in 1954 as feed prices were substantially lower at the beginning of the 1955-56 feeding season than a year earlier.

Cows like frosted bahia.

Fred Clark of "A" is getting a lot of winter grazing from his frosted bahia. Seed was harvested from the grass last summer and the grass was left to grow until frost. Mr. Clark says he can carry his cows through the winter at a low cost by having plenty of frosted bahia.

Claude Rhoades, Alberton community, says that bahia grass is one of our best pasture grasses. It is easy to establish, easy to destroy and does not become a pest. He also says that almost every farmer can have good pasture by planting some bahia.

EXTRA GOOD because it's NATURAL

This demonstrates the value of sodium to soils (left). The crop was side-dressed with Chilean Nitrate of Soda (26 per cent sodium); at right, no sodium. The extra value—sodium and the minor elements—help account for Chilean's remarkable all-around efficiency.

CHILEAN NITRATE—WORLD'S ONLY NATURAL NITRATE

For small grains, corn, cotton, tobacco, pine fruits, vegetables—Chilean Soda top-dressings and side-dressings assure lowest costs and extra profitable results. Here's why:

Natural Chilean is extra good for soil and crop because it's natural—the only natural combination of nitrate nitrogen, sodium and minor elements. Chilean Soda is the ideal way to feed a hungry crop with life-giving plant food.

Natural Chilean works fast. The nitrogen content is 100 per cent nitrate nitrogen—ready to work immediately after application. This assures maximum yields and quality, protection against losses and extra profits per acre.

Natural Chilean boosts yields. 100 "Hole on you" pounds produce as much or more crop than 50 lbs. of NATCHEL—regardless of any other nitrogen fertilizer—because of its natural content. Also, every pound of commercial limestone in acid destroying efficiency.

Natural Chilean fights acidity. Because it corrects acidity and improves potash, phosphate and minor element deficiencies, Chilean Soda is one of the most efficient and economical nitrogen fertilizers for top-dressing and side-dressing. Ask for Bulldog 8-4-4. Look for the Bulldog on the bag.

Low Temperature Best for Cooking Pork

Low temperatures are best for cooking pork. They develop tender texture and the flavor in the meat, hold down shrinkage and help save valuable nutrients.

Miss Mary Hulsey, API Extension Food and Nutrition Specialist, made these remarks this week in telling homemakers how to make the most of pork "bargains" now on the market.

According to Miss Hulsey, pork cooked at high heat is likely to become dry and hard. So roasting temperatures of around 325 degrees are recommended. But cook the meat a long time in order to get it well done.
